

Tiles for America (re)presentations

pictures by Tina Krey Jacobsen and Lee Spitzer

INTRODUCTION

After the tragic events of September 11, 2001, ceramic studios around the world joined together to offer a creative outlet to the people of our nation.

(...) The first New York memorial is located on a chain link fence at the corner of 7th Avenue and 11th Street.

(...) The second memorial is at the Tribute WTC Center on the southside of Ground Zero.

From: <<http://www.tilesforamerica.com/index.php>>

Spitzer, Lee. NY NYC Tiles for America 9.

Spitzer, Lee. NY NYC Tiles for America 10.

Spitzer, Lee. NY NYC Tiles for America 11.

Krey Jacobsen, Tina. Awakening.

Krey Jacobsen, Tina. Valentine.

Krey Jacobsen, Tina. We shall overcome.

Krey Jacobsen, Tina. Red Stripes.

Dr. Lee Spitzer is a native New Yorker and an avid photographer. He seeks to discover and reveal beauty embedded in urban contexts that may be routinely missed even by those who live and work there. His photographs have been included in a diverse range of traditional and online publications, including the Australian archaeology magazine, Archaeological Diggings, and the inflight magazine of Kenya Airways, Zawadi. The

Altre Modernità / Otras Modernidades / Autres Modernités / Other Modernities

Università degli Studi di Milano - Facoltà di Lettere e Filosofia Dipartimento di Scienze del Linguaggio e Letterature Straniere Comparate - Sezione di Studi Culturali

World Bank, the Egyptian Tourist Authority, Yale University and the International Museum of Women have also used his photographs.
His full online collection can be accessed at <www.flickr.com/photos/lbsimages>.

LBSONline@comcast.net

Tina Krey Jacobsen is a university student from Northern Norway, with a particular interest in photography. Jacobsen has previously studied photojournalism in New York, and now works on various photography projects. She is currently studying psychology at Norwegian University of Science and Technology (NTNU) in Trondheim, Norway.

krey.tina@gmail.com