

LANDSCAPES. AN ATMOSPHERIC APPROACH

[edited by Sara Borriello]

Table of contents

Sara Borriello, Atmospheric landscapes: theories, problems, perspectives

Section I: Exploring the landscape's identity

Bruce Bégout, Between immersion and detachment. Does every landscape have its own atmosphere?

Gabor Csepregi, Landscape as a presence

Tim Ingold, Landscape, atmosphere and the sky

Kira Meyer, Landscape – More than a mode of perception: a critique of Hermann Schmitz's conception of landscape

Section II: Outlining the landscape's boundaries

Tonino Griffero, The landscape spreads as far as you can feel it. An atmospheric liminology

Jürgen Hasse-Kateryna Demerza, On the atmosphere of landscape-borders

Dirk Michael Hennrich, Dimensions of the third. On the entanglement between landscape, body and atmosphere

Section III: Focusing on landscape features

Sara Borriello, Weather, climate, and atmospheres. An application to the landscape

Mădălina Diaconu, Nebulous landscape and the aesthetics of indeterminacy

Andreas Rauh, Capturing landscape: phenomenological forays through art, atmospheres, and everyday life

Section IV: Building and dwelling the landscape

Rainer Kazig, Sensory encounters with landscapes – atmospheres and the social construction of landscapes

Jacky Bowring, Sensuous atmospheres of landscape and memory

Eleonora Gironi Carnevale, The Russian urban text: city and atmospheres in My by E. Zamyatin

Federico De Matteis, Landscape and the oscillations of dwelling: two houses, two gardens

Serena Massimo, Dancing with the landscape. Anna Halprin 'explorative' dance as the encounter with nature's and architecture's atmospheric affordances

Enara García, Therapeutic atmospheres. The aesthetics of therapeutic spaces